

IDAHO MINERS ARE ACTIVE

A Mammoth Scheme to Be Operated on More Creek.

KILLED IN THE DE LAMAR.

E. L. Fegan Mysteriously Disappears from Boise.

Idaho's Big Apple—A Reward Offered for Congressmen Sweet—Social News from Sheridan, Wyoming—The Mica Deposits.

Boise, Idaho, Oct. 17.—(Special).—An interesting mining operation has just developed here that is important in itself and that promises to be productive of some very determined litigation. A company, formed of Thomas Logan, Lon Logan, Joseph Pinkham, J. Richards, E. R. Leonard, J. N. Wallace, C. S. Kinsley and A. L. Richardson have located More creek from point four miles below Idaho City to two miles above that place and one mile up Elk, seven miles in all, the claims embracing 600 acres. This creek runs through the heart of the rich diggings that have made Boise famous. The bed of the creek, with considerable ground on either side, was never operated, owing to the expense of diverting the stream. Various plans have been devised for solving the problem, but none have been successful. The present company proposes to put in a dredge and an amalgamator. It is understood that Merritt Bros., Minneapolis iron ore miners, are interested in the scheme. The ground has been held by the Idaho Bed Rock Flume Company. It is claimed that this company has kept up the assessment. Hon. George Ainslie of Boise, Isadore Smith, of Idaho City, and William Carr, of Zanesville, Ohio, holds the stock of this company. It is said they will make a bitter fight and a conflict over the possession of the ground is possible. There are supposed to be many millions of gold in the ground in dispute.

Killed in the De Lamar.

About 9 o'clock last night Thomas Francis was struck by a rock falling in a stop where he was working in the De Lamar mine, and so badly injured that he died about midnight. Deceased was 37 years of age and such a quiet, steady, industrious man that he had made but few acquaintances down town. He came here from California last February. His brother, Joseph Francis, much better known here than the deceased, is a tool sharpener in the mine. He was with his brother immediately after the accident and with Dr. Plummer, did everything possible for his relief. Mr. Joseph Francis started today with the remains to Sonoma, Tuolumne county, California, intending to have them embalmed upon reaching Nampa. The father of the deceased resides in Sonoma and has been informed of the sad event by telegraph.—De Lamar Nugget.

A Mysterious Disappearance.

On Thursday, Oct. 5, E. L. Fegan registered at the Overland from Marsh. The following day he settled his bill saying he was going home that night. Yesterday John H. Ireton arrived in the city from Marsh in search of Fegan. He says since the man left his farm, which is near that of Mr. Ireton, he has not been heard from and his friends entertain fears that he has been foully dealt with.

On the 5th he left for Boise to purchase some windows for the house and provisions for the winter. It is thought he took with him in the neighborhood of $75 or $100. Fegan is of medium height and weighs about 140 pounds. His complexion is somewhat swarthy, but his hair, which is very curly, and mustache are dark. A peculiarity of his features is his remarkably high forehead. Fegan when last seen wore a dark suit, almost new, and a brown colored slouch hat.—Statesman.

Idaho's Big Apple.

Idaho has the largest apple at the World's fair. It was a little late in coming, and several other states hung out a card with the weight of "the largest apple at the World's fair." Now on a pyramid of apples and surrounded by a hundred other large apples in the Idaho pavilion in the center of the fair, and above it reads, "Gloria Mundi—twenty seven and three-fourths ounces—the largest apple at the World's fair—We beat Arkansas two ounces and British Columbia one and a quarter."

A Reward Offered.

The Idaho Sentinel is offering a reward for news of the whereabouts of Willis Sweet, who was elected to represent Idaho in the House of Representatives. There is a claim that he has not been heard from since July 4, when he made a speech at Moscow. He is supposed to be in Washington, and an examination of the books would probably show that he draws his salary and perquisites regularly.

The Wyoming Weevil.

It is reported that weevil is in the Wyoming wheat now on exhibition at Chicago; that it was brought there in the agricultural exhibits from the southern states, and that the weevil have pervaded the entire building. If this report is true it would be better to destroy the agricultural exhibit than to bring weevil into Wyoming, as they have never been west of the Missouri river.—Rawlins Journal.

The Mica Deposits.

Just before going to press, we have been shown specimens of as fine sheets of mica as were ever mined. The respect comes from thirty miles south of Saratoga this time, and will probably not pan out like the specimens south of Rawlins—Saratoga Sun.

And the Dance Went On.

J. D. Helvey and Arthur Reese returned this week from a six weeks' visit to the Shoshone reservation, hot springs and the basin country in general. The boys report having had a great experience, but without a fine time at a dance which they attended at the springs, one of the participants playfully ploughed a hole through another ditto's jugular vein with a bullet from a .45 Colt. After the smoke had cleared away the dance went merrily on.—Sheridan (Wyo.) Enterprise.

FROM RAWLINS.

The Strange Disappearance of Four Men—Railway Business.

Rawlins, Wyo., Oct. 16, 1893.

Editor Herald:

A curious story comes from Snake River about the mysterious disappearance of four men. T. H. Merrill, giving his address as Ashley Valley, Utah, early in the week made oath before a magistrate of Routt county, Colo., at Baggs, Wyo., that he with four other men—Donaher, Reynolds, Mack and Brown—were camped near Greasewood gulch in Routt county, Colo., about twenty miles southeast of Baggs, on September 23; that on the 25th he and Donaher started out to try and kill some game. That they separated a short distance from camp and that the last seen of Donaher was on the 26th following he and Reynolds started out hunting, going in the same direction as he and Donaher went on the Saturday previous. They separated a short distance and Merrill returned to camp in the evening, but Reynolds did not turn up, the supposition being that he had missed his course. Brown and Mack sat up all night keeping a bright fire burning, thinking he might see it and return to camp. As he had not shown up by daylight, Brown and Mack saddled up their horses and started to search for him, taking Merrill's Winchester with them, saying they would not be gone to exceed a couple of hours. This was the last seen of them. Merrill went to camp until Thursday noon, when he started for Baggs to try and secure assistance in finding the missing men. The only plausible theory of their prolonged absence is that they stumbled upon some rustlers' camp and are being held until the camp and stock can be safely moved to a new locality. District court convenes here Monday morning. The trial is a short one, so that the term will probably last more than ten days. A large amount of freight, mostly merchandise, has been sent out during the week to South Pass, Lander, Fort Washakie and other northern points; also stock to Colorado, among the latter being steel cages, or coils, and iron fixtures for the Routt county, Colo., jail, located at Hahn's Peak. Ex-Postmaster P. L. Smith has purchased a bunch of sheep and will in the future pursue a quiet pastoral life without any banker after office. Work has been resumed upon the property of the Consolidated Copper and Silver Mining company, near the city. The Union Pacific Railway company are negotiating for the purchase of the new Dillon coal mines. Denver parties are investing in the Jack Creek mines, just south of Saratoga, where there is some very rich gold and copper prospects.

Railway Notes.

President Hatch and family, of Heber city, left yesterday for the fair over the Western. S. S. Dickinson is another pilgrim. The railroads are selling a great many tickets under the low rates to Chicago and St. Louis, and predict a tremendous crowd on the closing day of the fair. J. L. Yundt, of the Rock Island, is down the road looking after shipments.

From a Rio Grande Western Man.

To the Editor of The Herald. Sir—The Salt Lake Tribune has said a good deal concerning the reduction of wages of engine men on the Rio Grande Western railway and always with error of the company. We expect nothing else from the Tribune when there is a conflict between capital and labor. Will you say in behalf of engine men that the wage reduction is only a part of our troubles? Also, the engine men have their own methods of doing business, which is not through the columns of the Salt Lake Tribune. Sincerely yours, ONE OF THEM.

The New Schoolhouse at Pleasant Grove

Is to Be Dedicated with Appropriate Ceremonies—Singular Action of a Commissioner at Logan.

Pleasant Grove, Oct. 17.—Yesterday our new school house was dedicated with grand ceremonies. At 9 o'clock a. m. parents, citizens, teachers and students repaired to the old school building and after singing a farewell song to the old environments, a procession was formed, headed by the brass band, and a line of march began to the tune of "Yankee Doodle." Principal D. H. Robinson, assisted by a corps of teachers, kept the throng of moving humanity in proper order. On arriving at the new building the following programme was carried out: Song, "America," by the school choir. Prayer (dedicatory) by Elder James T. Thorne. Singing by the choir, "Star Spangled Banner" under D. H. Robinson. Recitation, Master Willie Armistead. Recitation, Miss Mattie Richards. Song, Miss Eva Hampton. Speeches were made by the principal, D. H. Robinson, Mayor J. E. Thorne, Bishop James Cobley, Superintendent Christensen, of Payson, and B. W. Briggs. Prayer was offered by Elder John A. Hayes, after which the citizens passed through the magnificent temple of learning and viewed with pleasure the structure with all its modern appliances can well feel proud of its present school facilities. This building has cost the taxpayers, with two smaller houses in the extreme portions of the district, $14,000. It is second to none in the county and it commands the admiration of all who view it. Pleasant Grove has always maintained the foremost rank in point of education in Utah, and we believe we turn out more teachers to the square foot than can be "trotted out" elsewhere. We employ thirteen in the district, all "home constructed" with the exception of one, and many more are teaching in other parts of the territory. A grand ball was given in Beer's hall in the evening which wound up a very pleasant holiday, and one which marks an epoch in education for the youth of Pleasant Grove City. We have an efficient corps of instructors under D. H. Robinson, principal, and everything is working harmoniously. Our trustees are to be congratulated for the early completion of these buildings.

Held Without Evidence.

Lars C. Miller of Newton was bound over yesterday on the charge of unlawful cohabitation by Commissioner Fletcher. A representative of the Journal happened in just as the decision of the court was being made and was amazed at the confession of the court that the case made out by the testimony was weak and flimsy. Upon further investigation we have learned something of the nature of the case and are surprised at the course Commissioner Fletcher has taken in this matter. We learn that there was not a scintilla of evidence of the guilt of the defendant and yet he was held in bonds of $500, and his alleged plural wife was held in the sum of $200. The witnesses were insulted by the court in giving his decision, by saying that he did not believe that they had told the truth in court. From all that can be learned there was no reason for such an insulting right has a magistrate to bind over to the grand jury without some evidence? If innocent people are going to be badgered and insulted and arrested and imprisoned without cause and without reason at the whim and caprice of our august commissioner it is time the people so understand it.—Logan Journal.
